WHITE SOX AND TIGERS REVIVE
EASTLAKE TODAY

The old rivals will be at it again this afternoon, with knowledge that the survival of the fittest can well be applied to the national pastime. The White Sox are going against the Champion Tigers, with two victories against the champions and four successive wins to their credit.

Last Sunday the White Sox beat the Glanis, 1 to 0, at Riverside park in the prettiest exhibition of baseball ever staged in the city. This afternoon the White Sox and Tigers clash at Eastlake park and if past performance count today's game will be bubbling over with class.

The Sox will present their best line-up. They are ready to go after winter baseball honors with an aggregation of star ball tossers that rival any team ever organized in the valley.

Manager Haldiman smiles every time he calls off his list. Here's some roster: Meason, formerly with the Texas league, catcher; Williams, out of the American association, catcher; Warren, a product of the local loins who lost his chance for the big show through a injury suffered in a valley game, first base; Brooks, the fastest infielder in the West Texas league, second base; Sorrey, formerly with the Mid-West league and later purchased by the Detroit Tigers, shortstop; Moore, a local star with a bullet arm and Babe Ruth swat, third base; Fupper, another local phenom, left field; Tenney of the Three-I league, center field; Phat Westfall, with the West Texas league the early part of last season and the hardest hitter in the valley, right field; Finley Westfall, one of the valley's most dependable outfielders and a slinger of no mean ability will cover left field and can also hurt a wicked ball for good and all. Suspected batters: Lyall, played last season with the West Texas league, can play any position on the team when his time permits a Sunday lay-off for baseball; and last but not least Pitcher Hickey, the best find of the Sox to date. Hickey has started in four games and won every start. He is a local lad with a promising future.

Against the Sox stars the Tigers will send Salazar, who has just returned from a highly successful tour of Mexico with the Nogales team. Salazar was in Nogales yesterday and

DePalma and Toft
Stage Real Desert
Speed Test Today

(Special to The Republican)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—In a genuine desert race from Los Angeles to Phoenix, Ralph De Palma, world's greatest automobile racer and Omar Toft, formerly of Phoenix, will start at daybreak tomorrow morning in a race to the Arizona metropolis from this city.

Both drivers are to participate in the big auto races during the sports carnival at the state fair grounds track on November 9 and 12.

The race between Toft and De Palma resulted from a discussion between Milton, Scales, De Palma and Toft as to the hardships encountered by the drivers in the olden days. A wager was made between Toft and De Palma as to who could first reach Phoenix and the event was on.

Toft will pilot a Simplex which he used when he catapulted into a barn near Santa Ana in the 1914 desert race and De Palma will use an eight-cylinder Lafayette.

The racing cars the pilots will use in the races Wednesday and Saturday were shipped tonight by express.

The world's record motorcycles which will be raced by Rudlow, Hopburn, Weishart, Artley and Church, were shipped with the racing cars.

George Purdy Bullard of Phoenix, representative of the A. A. A., met with the drivers this afternoon and went over the rules with the stars. A big delegation of racing fans from this city will accompany the Pullman car brigade of racers to Phoenix.

OKLAHOMA'S CHANCES HINGE ON MORRISON

MOVIE OF "RAM" MORRISON, DEVELOPING A PUNT. HE IS SLATED TO DO THE KICKING FOR OKLAHOMA THIS FALL.

By NE A SERVICE
NOMAN, Okla.—Clarence "Ram" Morrison, 174-pound University of Oklahoma fullback, is slated to do the punting for the Sooner eleven this season, the second year of membership in the Missouri Valley conference for Oklahoma.

The Sooner under Ben G. Owen, director of athletics since 1905, became a member of the conference in the spring of 1920 and won the football championship their first year by playing an underschedule with the most powerful eleven of the conference.

"Ram" Morrison at fullback was one of the combination of steller backfield men that made the Valley title possible. His line-smashing and punting on the offense and his sure tackling and ability to solve the play of the opposition on the defense made him one of the most dependable of Sooner backfield men.

Morrison is a brother of the famous Morrison fullback with the University of California eleven last season. Like his brother of western football, "Run" is a punter par excellence. His spirals are perfect and his distance has been averaging better than 40 yards in the daily practice.

FRIDAY BOXING
CARD WILL GIVE
O'NEILL CHANCE TO SHOW SPEED

Boxing fans have little cause for complaint in the arrangements for industrial week sports with the local prizes matched against tough out of town battlers for a real test of their ability.

Friday evening the William F. Blake post of the American Legion will stage a boxing card at the Capital City Arena with Ralph Pena and Ira O'Neill topping the list in a scheduled 10 round bout.

Ira has been having things pretty much his own way down here with the local boxers outclassed and outwitted. Battling Olea came down from Prescott and proved that he was not suffering with insomnia and Fighting Beaver drew a brodie against the home town champ. Soldier Brown put on a pair of gloves and that about ends the products of Arizona fight foundries. Ralph Pena is an Arizona boy; he started at Ray and almost stopped at the same place when Rufus Williams wrecked his cafeteria with an oversupply of the leather mitts. But Pena resolved to make good and some day even matters with the Old Master. He has not accomplished his purpose as yet but he still has hopes of turning the trick. If he fails to beat Ira he can wait until Father Time plants a kyo on Rufus. If Ralph beats Ira he stands a good chance of beating Rufus, even at this stage of the game.

Pena went over to Los Angeles where his ability to assimilate punishment demanded attention and he was coached by the wise ones and during the last six months he has been cleaning up where once he was used as a door mat. Vernon fight fans like Pena's style of fighting and only through close ties in Phoenix was Pena persuaded to pass up Jack Doyles for a Phoenix scrap.

The Ryan-O'Neill bout will not be a championship event, but it will give Phoenix fight fans more fight talk than a championship go.

The semi-final will bring together Young Mike and Billy Smith for 12 rounds. The boys will battle at 128 pounds. Young Mike has been sending the boys to the gas house in regular order and like Ira he has been forced to seek new worlds to conquer. Billy Smith hails from Prescott where Jack Lunch and Tiny Rayfield have been holding forth. Little is known of his ability outside of the fact that his home town thinks enough of his chances against Young Mike to risk a few shekels.

Soldier Brown will meet Frank Williams of San Diego in the four round preliminary and Wildcat Johns takes on Battling Flynn in a special four rounder.

The curtain raiser shows Battling Sam the Dancing Master and Young Rivera in four rounds.

SEARCHING LONDON FOR SON

A pathetic quest for their missing soldier son is being made by an elderly couple, J. P. Wood and wife, who arrived in London from Toronto a month ago. Daily they have made weary pilgrimages through the London streets and open spaces, peering anxiously at passersby in the hope of finding their boy. When too fatigued to accompany her husband, Mrs. Wood has spent her time sitting at a front window of her hotel.

The missing man, Lewis H. Wood, who is now 25, was assisting his father in a prosperous business when he joined the Canadian army at Brantford, Ontario, in 1916. When in England and France he wrote regularly to his parents and his handsome girl wife until 1918, when the correspondence ceased.

The last known of him by the Canadian military authorities was that he was given leave at Huxton, Derbyshire, in September, 1918. Later his parents received a letter in which he said he had been sentenced to imprisonment in connection with a robbery of which he was innocent.

Prolonged search by Scotland Yard and prison authorities have satisfied the Canadian military authorities that no such robbery took place, nor has a man answering to Wood's name or description been found.

The parents are determined not to return home until they learn the fate of their son. "He was a model boy when he left home," they said, "and no matter what misfortune may have overtaken him, we will welcome him with joy if he is found."—London Mail.
